At Silver mountain, Cal., a few days ago, Earnest Reusch deliberately fired a charge of buckshot into the back of Errick Errickson's head as the latter was playing a game of cards with a friend by the window of his saloon. The local chronicle, which records the episode in a matter-of-fact way, naively adds: "This result was not unexpected by our citizens, as the wife of Reuseh has been living with Errickson for the last three months."

Joshua Francis Fisher died at his residence, in Philadelphia, on Tuesday, the 21st instant, in the 66th year of his age. He was born in Philadelphia in 1807, and was a descendant in the fifth generation from John Fisher, who came over in a ship with William Penn, and settled first at Lewes, Delaware, and afterwards in Philadelphia. His life was principally devoted to literary and scientific pursuits, and he was a learned and estimable gentleman.

Bayard Taylor recently delivered an original discourse on American Literature, at Gotha, in Germany. The lecture was given for the benefit of the Ladies' Charitable Association of that city, and the receipts exceeded 100 thalers. Mr. Taylor spoke in the German language, and introduced translations by himself, of Poe's "Raven," and one of Whittler's poems. The lecture hall was crowded, and the lecturer achieved a thorough success.

A bill for the improvement of the levees of the Mississippi river has been introduced into the Senate by Mr. Alcorn. The proposed appropriation is thirty-six millions of dollars. Seventy millions of acres of land now waste. some of it the richest in the South, will be reclaimed.

The defeat by the House of the proposition for the revival of ship-building and commerce is believed to foreshadow the fate of many measures calling for Government aid and large expenditures.

Relief for the Poor. The Relief Committee of the Young Men's Christian Association would respectfully announce to the benevolent of the city that they are now prepared to commence the usual winter distribution of their bounty.

Supplies in money, clothing, groceries, provisions, wood and shoes, will be thankfully received, duly acknowledged and judiciously be-

All articles will be received at the office of the General Secretary, 94 King street. Cases of destitution may be reported to the Dispensers or to the Associates. COMMITTEES.

THE SINGER FAMILY SEWING MA-CHINE-Which is the best Sewing Machine is a point on which every company differs, the purchaser giving bonds with approved seach, of course, thinking its own the best; but curity, and the title to be retained to secure the if the point were to be decided by popularit the Singer would far outstrip all others. The resold under decree in said suits at the purchassales of this machine have been enormous, amounting to more than 180,000 in the year 1871, leaving all rivals far behind. The sales in this city amounted to two hundred and forty during the past year, which is without precedent. It is capable of performing more work and in a more substantial manner than any machine claiming public attention, sewing with equal facility the coarsest and finest material. References furnished of persons who have tested all the different machines, and who pronounce the Singer in-comparably the best machine in existence. Call and examine before making a selection. Sold on the lease plan. Machines sent to all parts of the country.
